U. S. INVASION GUNS CALLED BEST IN WAR

Weapons Superior or Equal to Nazis' Army Chief Declares.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 5—An American announcement of the development of battle equipment equal to the enemy's is a German claim of "a hidden" and "unknown" preparation.

Gen. Sayer, said American weapons are "superior or equal to the enemy's," declared Gen. Henry Sayer, chief of staff of the U. S. army in Europe, in a radio broadcast from the front lines.

When the day of the forthright operation arrives every American soldier taking part may be assured his weapons, ammunition, tanks and vehicles will be superior, or at least equal, to those of the enemy.

Admiral the Germans had superior weapons early in the war, the general declared.

Other developments in the invasion picture yesterday included a report by King George VI.

KENTON, May 5—Closing arguments were being heard this afternoon by Judge Arthur D. Tudor in the $400,000 taxpayers' suit of Attorney Carlos A. Faulkner.

Representatives of the state auditor's office submitted statements of the state appeals court Judge Tudor in the $400,000 taxpayers' suit of Attorney Carlos A. Faulkner.

FATEFUL MAY DAYS HOLD INVASION SECRET. Meteorologically, the most favorable conditions for invasion are at hand. Around the world the fateful prediction has been passed: "Sometime in May!" Those who watch the tides, the moon and the weather forecast: "May 1 to May 3." War correspondents pooled their wisdom and voted: "May 6 to 9 will find conditions perfect." Others say May 17 "has everything you'd want." Well, here is a calendar and a map showing various directions mentioned for the terrific allied assaults. See if you can guess. From the east and the west, the main drives are expected to be launched simultaneously. From the south, the thrust may be spread from Corsica and Sardinia to France. From Italy, a thrust may be made into the Balkans. Russia, it is reported, will head straight for Berlin across Poland and the channel coast. A thrust may swing from Norway and Denmark to Calais or Dieppe. (International)

SEES POLITICS IN RATIONING

Congressman Predicts Further Relaxation Before November Election.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 5—Further relaxation of rationing restrictions between now and the November elections and "more drastic" rationing policies thereafter, in the event President Roosevelt is reelected were predicted today by Representative Andressen (R-Minn.).

Implying that politics are dictating current rationing policies, Andressen, in a statement prepared for delivery to the house, said he would not be surprised if, between now and Nov. 7, beefsteak, sugar, butter, canned fruits, gasoline, fuel oil and automobile tires were made available to civilians without rationing.

"Personally," he added, "I am convinced that should the New Deal elect its fourth term candidate, Nov. 7, the OPA will shortly thereafter reinstate and make more drastic all rationing policies to further regiment and socialize the economy of our country."

Commenting on the decision of OPA Administrator Chester Beales to remove all meat except beefsteak and beef roast from rationing, Andressen said:

"I marvel at the rapidity and ease with which Mr. Beales can change his views and actions. I recognize that New Deal action has always been geared to proper timing. Can it be that the President and his invisible advisors found it expedient to virtually end all food rationing at this time, in order to remove the 'odor' from the presidential taking of a certain Chicago mail order company?"

"Or was it a New Deal political expediency properly timed to end food rationing a few months before the presidential election?"

Andressen contended that food rationing could have been abolished six months ago because warehouses were "bulging with meat and processed foods."

Lausche Indorsement by Jones Fans Democratic Dissension

Smoldering Embers of Discord Burst Into Flame as Other Candidates Attack Party Chairman's Action.

By The Associated Press
Long-smoldering dissension in Ohio's Democratic party burst into flame today as its workers were appealing for support in Tuesday's primary election.

State Chairman Darrell S. Jones announced he had no desire to continue in office, and therefore felt free to indorse Mayor Frank J. Lausche of Cleveland for the Democratic nomination for governor.

This was a shock to the five other Democratic aspirants to the governorship, and cries for Jones' resignation arose immediately. James W. Huffman of Columbus called him a "crackpot politician" and demanded that he give up the chairmanship at once.

Frazier Reams of Toledo concurred in the resignation demand, then inquired: "Or, Mr. Jones, are you to continue as state chairman in case Mr. Lausche should win?"

Lausche's opponents declared they believed his indorsement by Jones would have little effect on the voters.

Walter Baertschi of Toledo entertained this belief, he said, because the state chairman had been at odds with various sub-leaders of the party.

Frank Dye of Columbus, questioning the value of the Jones indorsement, said "everyone has a right to support personally any candidate he chooses."

Candidate Reams, however, declared "it is high time that the state chairman of the Democratic committee of Ohio cease and desist in practices which tend to external disorder and lead to dissension which ultimately ends in party failure at the general election."

Jones, a Newark lawyer who was elected chairman of the Democratic state executive committee two years ago despite his indorsement of Republican presidential candidate Wendell L. Willkie in 1940, threw his support to Mayor Lausche at Newark last night.

TOKYO REPORTS NAVAL LEADER DEAD IN ACTION

Adm. Koga Said To Have Been Killed in Plane Directing Battle.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, May 5—The Tokyo radio announced today that Adm. Mineichi Koga, commander of the Japanese combined fleet, had been killed on active duty, less than a year after his predecessor, Adm. Isoroku Yamamoto, had met a similar death.

A broadcast recorded by U. S. government monitors quoted an imperial headquarters communique as saying Koga had "died at his post in March of this year while directing general operations from an airplane at the front."

The wording of the communique bore a striking similarity to a Tokyo communique of May 21, 1943, announcing Yamamoto's death in a warplane the previous April "while directing general strategy on the front line."

Noted for Tenacity
Koga, 59, generally had been regarded as a sound but not brilliant naval officer, noted for tenacity rather than for his initiative. He lacked the reputation of his predecessor, who was known as the man who torpedoed the London naval conference in 1934, planned the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor and once boasted he would dictate peace terms in the White House.

Before reaching head of the combined fleet Koga had served as commander of the Yokosuka naval station and before that as commander of the Japanese fleet in Chinese waters. He also had been vice-chief of the naval staff from 1934-37 and was naval attaché in Paris in 1926.

He already has been succeeded as commander of the combined fleet, Tokyo said, by 58-year-old Adm. Soemu Toyoda, commander of the Yokosuka naval station. Adm. Zengo Yoshida, heretofore in command of the Japanese fleet in Chinese waters, has taken over the Yokosuka command, the broadcast added.

Koga Promoted
Koga has been honored posthumously by Emperor Hirohito, who has promoted him to the rank of admiral and awarded him "the first class order of the golden kite and the grand cordon of the rising sun with Paulownia flowers," Tokyo said.

A later Japanese broadcast said Maj. Gen. Kumas Ohashi and Maj. Gen. Yoshida Shinokawa had died in April of illnesses contracted "while on active duty."

Ohashi, whom the broadcast described as "chief of staff of a front line army corps," and as "head of an army unit in China," was said to have died April 14, while Shimokawa, "commander of a unit on the front, died April 18. The broadcast reported Lt. Gen. Chunkichi Ochiai had been appointed commander of the Asahikawa division.

Personal Choice
He commented that Jones indorsement of Lausche was "a matter of personal choice."

The Democrats' family troubles burst into the open as discontent again cropped out against the Republican state chairman, Ed D. Schorr.

Atty. Gen. Thomas J. Herbert, one of four men seeking the Republican nomination for governor, asserted at Cincinnati that he had not changed his position "regarding the activities of State Chairman Schorr in support of one candidate."

(Herbert has not publicly identified the "candidate," but Schorr is known to favor Mayor James G. Stewart of Cincinnati.)

Meanwhile, Mayor Stewart carried his campaign into Dayton, where he told voters that "federal boondoggling should have no place in post-war Ohio."

Converging Allies May Soon Force Japs To Naval Action

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ
Associated Press War Editor

Forces under Adm. Chester W. Nimitz in the Pacific, Gen. Douglas MacArthur in the southwest Pacific and Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten in southeast Asia are nearing the vital of Japan's defenses and a naval action may be forced.

Today's allied communique told of allied landings around the Hollandia coast, area to cut off enemy troops trapped by the allied invasion there April 22. Allied planes raided Wewak, British New Guinea, with 185 tons of bombs, hit Wake island, Dutch New Guinea, Rabaul, New Britain, Dutch Timor and Woleai in the Carolines.

Central Pacific planes pounded Truk in the Carolines with a 30-ton attack. Other planes hit Ponape east of Truk and enemy positions in the Marshalls.

Planes from China bases bagged a 4,000-ton freighter out of a six-ship convoy in the South China sea.

Mandalay, Japanese base in Burma, was pounded by allied bombers.

On the China ground front, the pressure was increasing on the historic city of Luyang. A Chinese army spokesman said Japanese troops captured Linju, east of Luyang, and are trying to corner the Chinese army for a decisive battle.

WAR SUMMARY
AIR RAIDS—British bombers snarl shipping in Budapest rail yards. Force of 200 Liberators carry attack from England into Tokyo day.

TOKYO—Jap radio reports Adm. Koga killed in airplane crash while directing battle at front. Circumstances similar to those under which Yamamoto died a year ago.

PACIFIC—Japs soon may be forced to accept naval contest as allied forces converge on vital bases.

WEAPONS—U. S. invasion equipment called superior or equal to anything Nazis have in use.

Nazis Broadcast Report of Ward Seizure by Troops

By The Associated Press
The Berlin radio broadcast the following today on the U. S. government seizure of the Montgomery Ward plant, quoting a DNB German news agency dispatch from Geneva:

"The sensational and illegal occupation by United States troops of the largest American mail order department store, Montgomery Ward, has caused such a strong protest that the Roosevelt government has had to yield to the whole front."

"The London Daily Express reports that first, the troops were called back; second, the government ordered an election among the staff of Montgomery Ward— which the management had always been demanding; and third, Roosevelt's adherents in congress had to renounce their opposition to an examination of the case."

"The senate and the house of representatives will closely examine whether certain war authorities of Roosevelt's which will expire June 30 and which also include authority for occupying companies are to be prolonged after what has happened to Montgomery Ward."

Liquor
The senate's liquor investigating committee recommend that more industrial alcohol be brought in from the Virgin Islands, Cuba and Puerto Rico and less rum and gin. Senator Burdick (D-Utah) says "entirely too much emphasis is being placed on the quality of industrial alcohol and entirely too little on the quality of beverage alcohol being imported into this country for consumption."

RAIDERS CARRY HEAVY ATTACKS INTO 21ST DAY

British Planes Snarl German Traffic in Budapest Railroad Yards.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, May 5—American Liberators pounded the "invasion coast" of France again today in a before-breakfast blow, and then medium and fighter bombers and fighters took over the 21st consecutive day of the relentless pre-invasion bombing of Europe with attacks on rail lines feeding Hitler's Atlantic wall.

Not a plane was lost today the third day American heavy bombers have battered France and Holland without loss. Of the few German planes that challenged the invaders, fighters escorting Mitchell bombers shot down four.

The Berlin radio said that allied Mediterranean bombers were over Romania this afternoon after last night's raid on Budapest in Hungary, but the report of the daylight attack had not been confirmed by allied headquarters. The broadcast said the afternoon raiders penetrated the Balkan kingdom under a heavy cloud cover and were attacked by German fighters in sharp battles.

The Liberators assault was the fifth heavy bomber blow on rail, anti-invasion installations and airports in northern France in six days.

Both the Russian and Italian fronts remained relatively calm. The big RAF bombers stayed berthed in Britain; again last night, Mosquitoes bombed western Germany and other planes mined Nazi waters, all without loss. Four allied planes were lost in the Mediterranean.

Pilots reported two violent explosions and many fires in the Rakos rail yards in Budapest, a funnel on the main east-west German railway through Vienna to the Romanian battle grounds.

The four-engined American sky giants roared across the English channel in a force officially described as small, indicating that fewer than 200 Liberators made the short hop to the area of France closest to Britain. They were under escort of probably an equal number of U. S. Eighth air force Mustangs.

Nazi Shipping Attacked
A middle East communique reported recent attacks on German shipping and airbases in Crete, the Aegean island and the Greek harbor of Monemvasia. Two supply ships were set afire and planes on the Maleme airfield in Crete were damaged.

Other formations of daylight raiders headed for the continent later in the forenoon.

The blow against targets in Budapest, capital of Hungary, was the second successive night stab into the Balkans for allied heavy and medium bombers from Italy. The previous night the raiders hit rail yards in Budapest.

Although hampered by bad weather, the raiders carried on.

An immediate quarantine on all dogs in Marion was ordered by the city health board at a meeting yesterday.

Its action, members said, resulted solely from the discovery of a rabid dog in Marion late last week. They said a careful investigation had not indicated the dog had caused any harm, but as a precaution, they ordered the quarantine.

Such orders have been issued each summer by the board, but yesterday's action brought the quarantine several weeks earlier than usual. It is to continue for an indefinite period, and probably will remain in effect until late in the fall.

Under provisions of the board's action, any dogs found loose on the streets of Marion may be picked up by the dog warden or police and held for three days at the owner's expense. The owner may claim it if an investigation shows it is not rabid and that it is properly licensed, but the owner must pay for its care during the three-day period.

The quarantine makes no exceptions, even for muzzled dogs or those vaccinated against infection. Although health board members have been causing to Victory gardens in some sections of the city, and said the garden problem did not enter into their decision, it was apparent that the board's order would largely solve the garden damage problem.

More Thinking, Less Emotion in Planning Needed

By DEWITT MACKENZIE, Associated Press War Analyst

We Americans are inclined, one suspects, to display too much emotion — too much violence of thought — in our efforts to prepare for the great post-war situation. Instead of the rearing of our usually world into a brave new home for mankind.

That's understandable up to a point, because we've subscribed to a code of justice — and a good one, too — for our guidance as we battle for the right. Still, there's always the danger that the eager adherents to any code may become fanatical and over-zealous.

I'm reminded of a little news item a while back about a young woman of strong religious beliefs who lived in a remote mountain district. She stabbed out her own eyes in remorse because she felt they tempted her to sin. Her religion was all right, but her emotions carried her beyond reason.

There are numerous controversial issues involved in the post-war readjustment. Among them are territorial claims, some of which already have been laid down definitely by our Russian ally, and others that patently are developing. Then there are a considerable number of cases where self-determination is sought, both in Europe and in North Africa.

Explosive Situations
Now, every one of these cases is filled with high explosive. This is especially true since in each instance all the big three — America, Britain and Russia — have at least a sentimental interest. Ordinary horse-sense dictates that explosives on hand be handled cautiously.

This is before each of us — whether we be columnists, politicians or longshoremen — not sound off too violently in public in laying down the post-war law. We have to remember that we are in a partnership. We can't say to either of our great Allies dogmatically, "You must," any more than they can say to our Uncle Sam "You must."

Our ultimate war objective, I take it, is to establish a just and enduring peace. That certainly involves a high degree of altruism. It means acceptance of the thesis that we are indeed our brother's keeper — within realistic and practical limits. We must remember that impractical zealotry in our fraternal mentorship over small nations may bring them disaster and perhaps wreck the chances of enduring peace.

View of Statesmen
The consensus of Allied statesmen is that world peace depends on solidarity among the big three. A split in the partnership would mean another war ultimately.

Subdantly doesn't involve subterfuge on the part of any one of the partnership. It doesn't demand sacrifice of principle. It does call for a high sense of realism in working out post-war readjustments. It involves the view that world peace is more important than is the outcome of any single claim that is of restricted significance.

But what about the Atlantic charter? Well, practical minded British Prime Minister Churchill recently gave us a lead on that. He was asked in commons for a clarifying statement "in view of the doubts which exist as to what territories the principles of the Atlantic charter were to apply." To this he replied:

"It is evident that as the changing phases of the war succeed one another, some further clarifications will be required of the position under the document. . . . The Atlantic charter stands as a declaration of the spirit and purpose in which its signatories are waging this war. . . ."

This has been interpreted generally as meaning that while the charter stands for broad ideals, it must be adapted to meet unusual circumstances. If we accept that as the common sense view, then we must approach the various complications without undue emotion and with realism — a realism not dissipated from the reason by the self-interest which the United States, and all its Allies, are entitled to sustain.

COLUMBUS, May 3.—Employees of the Ward & Company's store here, under new federal regulations, will not be dismissed by the company without approval of the federal government.

James C. Leston, Sowell's attorney, asserted he regarded his client's arrest "wholly unjustified in the circumstances."

Judge Holly's ruling, it issued Wednesday, will come a day after the national labor relations board's election to determine whether a CIO union still represents a majority at the company's plants, a basic question in the controversy.

SENATORS HIT 4-F DRAFT BILL

Military Committee Raises Objections to Army-Backed Measure.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—A bill designed to force at least a million 4-F's into war jobs ran up against strong opposition in the senate military committee today despite endorsements from the committee's counterpart in the house.

Senator Kilgore (D-W.Va.) predicted the senate group would view the Bailey-Brewster "work or be drafted" proposal with the same lack of enthusiasm that has accompanied 18 months' consideration of the Austin-Wadsworth national service bill, applicable to both men and women.

"Any draft of labor that does not include a draft of industry would disrupt production that is truly phenomenal," Kilgore told a reporter. Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) added that he could not support the proposal.

Their view contrasted with those expressed yesterday by Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the house military committee. Rep. Costello (D-Calif.) whose subcommittee recommended "work or fight" action to end labor turnover, and Rep. Latta (R-Conn.), author of two pending measures dealing with turnover.

Senate Committee Chairman Reynolds (D-N.C.), opponent of national service, promised "a vote by the committee one way or another within 30 days."

19 HORSES ENTERED IN KENTUCKY DERBY

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, Ky., May 5.—Nineteen horses entered the Kentucky Derby today, the last minute of the race had been completed. The race was won by the favorite, Secretariat, who won by a record time of 1:59.4.

Secretariat, a bay colt, was trained by Tom Smith and owned by James E. Payne. He was ridden by jockey Charles McPhee. Secretariat's record time of 1:59.4 broke the previous record of 2:03.4 set by American Pharoah in 1919.

The Kentucky Derby is the most important of the American Thoroughbred horse races. It is held annually on the first Saturday in May at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Kentucky. The race is run over a distance of 1.25 miles.

Secretariat's victory was a historic one, as he became the first horse to win the Derby in under two minutes. He also won the Preakness Stakes and the Belmont Stakes, completing the Triple Crown.

Secretariat's owner, James E. Payne, is a prominent businessman and horse breeder. He has owned several other successful racehorses, including American Pharoah and Secretariat's sire, Bold Ruler.

Secretariat's victory was a triumph for his trainer, Tom Smith, who has been successful in training several other champions. Smith is a well-known figure in the horse racing world.

Secretariat's record time of 1:59.4 is a testament to his exceptional speed and endurance. It is a record that has stood for over 40 years.

GERMAN ATTACKS REPULSED BY REDS

By The Associated Press
LONDON, May 5.—German probing attacks southeast of Stanislawow and south of Tiraspol were thrown back yesterday for the second successive day as the lull in ground fighting continued along other positions of the eastern front, Moscow announced today.

Near Stanislawow in the south-east corner of old Poland German attempts to reconquer Soviet positions were beaten off in the morning and a Nazi attack against one Russian unit was hurled back in the afternoon. Soviet communications said. It asserted about 800 Germans were killed and 12 Nazi tanks destroyed.

The broadcast's communication listed no essential changes on the land front but declared long-range Soviet planes bombed and strafed German and Romanian troops pinned in the besieged Crimean city of Sevastopol Wednesday night.

Telephones Smoke As Wires Get Crossed

Firemen from Central station doubled for the telephone and electric companies Wednesday night when they were called to handle some "hot" telephones.

About 10:10 p. m. they were called to the homes of Miss Geneva Bell of 184 South State street and Herman Amann of 195 East Pleasant street when the residents found the telephones starting to smoke. Becoming alarmed when they called firemen, they were forced to remove the instruments from the walls.

The smoking wires resulted from electric lines dropping over the telephone lines. Firemen answered in the chief's car. No loss was reported.

HOUSE AUTHORIZES WARD SEIZURE PROBE

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The house, brushing aside only token opposition, today authorized an investigation of the government's right to seize Montgomery Ward and Company's Chicago properties. A seven-man committee was created to make the inquiry independently of the senate, which already has one underway.

The resolution carried by a vote of 300 to 60 after little more than an hour's sharp debate centering on exactly what wartime authority congress intended President Roosevelt to have.

Critics of the Army's seizure of the plant following a labor dispute described the action as "tyrannical." Rep. Dewey (R-N.Y.), author of the resolution, said the investigation should be conducted on a "high plane" to determine if the lawmakers "unwittingly" have given the Chief Executive "unwarranted power."

Attorney General Biddle's ruling that Montgomery Ward is a war plant and thus subject to seizure was questioned in the debate. Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) of the rules committee declared he was sure "the evidence will show" the company received "many favors" from the government and made $200,000,000 in 10 years under the New Deal.

REPUBLICANS STRIKE YOUTH KEYNOTE

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Republicans today appeared to have developed a new campaign theme to offset Democratic claims of "experience" by proposing to put younger and fresher men in national offices from the presidency on down.

Although national committee officials said it was more coincidence that three high ranking party members have sounded this note recently, an influential Republican declared there was no doubt that if President Roosevelt and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York become the opposing nominees much more will be said on the subject.

Dewey brought the matter up inferentially in his April 27 speech on foreign policy in New York when he blamed "tired war leaders" for the failure to make a lasting peace after the last war.

There has been every indication that the Democrats will stress the experience of their officeholders as one of their major campaign points.

National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan has advanced this argument in several speeches, asserting the Republicans were offering "untried" men for positions of great responsibility in wartime.

He added at Chicago this week that his best information was that President Roosevelt, who has been in the south resting after an attack of bronchitis, is in splendid health.

Almost every form of literature is represented in the Bible.

PLANT MORE IN 1944

It takes huge quantities of food to feed our 11 million fighting men. That's why it is so important for every one to have a Victory garden this year. Home-grown food also means more shipping space for transporting war weapons. You will benefit, personally, too—

- You and your family can have plenty of nutritious vegetables and fruits.
- You save money.
- The outdoor exercise is healthy.

Murder Charge Filed in Ohio Girl's Death

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., May 5.—First degree murder charges were filed last night against Elmer Charles Gray, 54, of Uhrichsville, in the rape slaying of nine-year-old Naomi Freed at nearby Dennison April 18.

The body of the Freed girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Freed of Dennison, was recovered from Little Sillwater creek April 21, after a three-day search.

Sheriff John McIntosh said Gray made a confession after submitting to a life detector test in Cleveland. The confession related, the sheriff said, that Gray accosted the girl as she crossed a bridge between Dennison and Uhrichsville, where she had attended a movie. McIntosh said Gray admitted attacking the girl but remembered nothing after that.

TRAINMAN FOUND DEAD

PITTSBURGH, May 5.—John Vickroy, 45, of New Philadelphia, O., a freight conductor for the Pennsylvania railroad, was found dead in the tender of a coal train here. He apparently struck his head on an overhead bridge during his run.

ABOUT ANYTHING

In and Around Marion

Hint To Inventors

It appears to us after several grim experiences recently that someone's fertile brain should evolve some other means of trundling furniture than that of casters in use at the present time. Every time a bump is hit or sudden strain results—woops! There goes one of the small wheels from its socket. Of course the ingenious little inventions always manage to fall off when you are in a particular hurry and when there is no one around to help you with the piece of furniture gone berserk.

We have in mind a particular typewriter on a movable stand. This cantankerous creature seems to have a mind of its own and the very worst moments decides. "This is the time for me to have some fun. Let's see, which one shall I let loose now?" Since there are but three casters on the machine, the whole project falls flatter than a cold pancake when one of the little thingamajigs lets go its end of the job.

Why couldn't someone who has nothing else to do invent another implement for the aid of tired office workers and home bodiers who just love to change furniture. Perhaps a jet of compressed air could be arranged beneath the cumbersome object. Press a button and the compressed air raises its burden, the long-suffering mover pushing it through space with the greatest of ease. That's just a suggestion.

Dandelion Time

The reappearance of dandelions on Marion lawns will again set children to gathering on their way to school. Remember when you used to do the same thing and how disappointed you were when the whole golden mass of blooms folded up at night and you had to pick another bunch to replace them?

We have heard that Russian dandelions will produce rubber. Did you ever notice that the "juice" of the dandelion somewhat resembles liquid latex? We all know how sticky it can be.

Saves Ration Coupons

You can meet the best people in shoe repair stores almost any time of day and it isn't a bit unusual to find friends carrying on a lively conversation while their released toolies are twiddling unhampered by shoes.

Time To Change

A custom repeated year after year is the emerging on May from red flannels and winter garb into shorts and summer apparel. We can't vouch for the absence of all red flannels, but there were a lot of summer clothes and shoes in evidence in Marion on May 1.

Censored

A censored letter certainly leaves a lot of things unsaid. Now instead of blacking out the offending word or phrase they pick up scissors or a knife and zipzip there is a hole. Naturally all on the opposite side is gone, too. You read the letter and just get going good when you come to the censored part and there you are dangling through a space about an inch or so long.

Show Troubles

The annual crop of junior high dramatics reminds us of dramatics in a slightly different line in which a bunch of Marion kids was once involved, namely puppet shows. One performance stands out particularly. The room in which the production was staged lacked the usual proscenium arch so the producers had to build their own stage out of screens. As everyone knows screens are not the most substantial of building materials. At a high spot in the performance the screen that hid the mess backstage suddenly toppled. Everything stopped while the stage was reconstructed and the performance continued as if nothing had happened.

Believe in Signs

About anything can happen as a result of wartime transportation problems nowadays. Situations can arise leading even to "deep philosophical ponderings." Friends of three young women who "share the ride" to Marion from southwest of town were amused recently when the girls described a recent experience which almost convinced them of "believing in signs." One of the trio drives her soldier husband's car to work sharing transportation with the others. On the way into the city the other morning the engine stopped dead, almost in front of the Oakland Evangelical church bulletin board which carried this warning: "You can't thumb a ride to Heaven. Nor could the harried passengers thumb a ride to work. The driver called her office and one of the men came to the rescue with a trouble truck. Everything ended happily with the car being towed to the company garage. But it left something to be thought about. No, you can't thumb a ride to heaven, and neither can you be towed there, the girls philosophized.

More than 47,000 were trained by the government in industrial safety courses in 1943.

What's Ailing Mort Cooper? Is Cardinals $64 Question

Associated Press — Mort Cooper, St. Louis Cardinals pitcher, today was expected to be the first big test for the Cardinals' ace pitcher. Cooper, who has been out of the lineup for several days, was expected to pitch in the first game of the season against the Cincinnati Reds. Cooper's performance in this game will be a key factor in determining whether he is ready to return to the lineup. The Cardinals are currently in a tight race with the Cincinnati Reds for the top spot in the National League. Cooper's return to the lineup would be a significant boost for the Cardinals.

Cooper was breaking into the main column for the first time after surviving a pitiful first inning in which he allowed three runs on four hits and a walk. The West Virginians allowed only four more hits in the rest of the game as the Reds pulled St. Louis down to within one game of Cincinnati and the Phils, tied for second.

Freddie Fuzsimm's Phils, who yesterday, moved into Brooklyn today.

Boston slid the New York Giants down the shoots to their fourth straight defeat, 8-4, with Connie Ryan, a former Polo Grounder, adding to their embarrassment with two singles and a homer accounting for four runs.

The Cincinnati-Chicago game in the National was postponed, and Brooklyn, like Philadelphia, was not scheduled.

St. Louis took advantage of the open date in the eastern half of the American league to mention its game on first by a 2-0 job against Detroit.

The Browns learned that pitcher Steve Sundra will report for military duty Tuesday but signed pitcher Denny Galehouse who has been working in a war plant, for week-end duty.

The Cardinals revealed that outfielder Johnny Hopp had been rejected at the Jefferson barracks induction center.
